GUN DEATHS BY INTENT, 2018

Nearly 40,000 Americans died by gun violence in 2018. An average of 109 people died of gun violence each day in 2018, bringing the most recent five-year average (2014-2018) to 103 gun deaths per day.

TRENDS OVER TIME

Over the last 10 years (2009-2018), the overall gun death rate increased 18%. Increases in both homicide and suicide rates contributed to the overall change over the course of the decade; in that time period, the firearm homicide rate increased nearly 17% and the firearm suicide rate increased 19%.

---

39,740

Gun deaths in the U.S., including

3,342

Children and teens (0-19)

61%

Suicides comprised three in every five gun deaths

35%

Homicides comprised one-third of gun deaths

84%

Of gun death victims in the U.S. were male

United States

GUN DEATHS: 2018

- 39,740 gun deaths in the U.S., including
- 3,342 children and teens (0-19)
- 61% Suicides comprised three in every five gun deaths
- 35% Homicides comprised one-third of gun deaths
- 84% Of gun death victims in the U.S. were male

Among the states in 2018, Mississippi had the highest gun death rate, followed by Alabama, Wyoming, Missouri, and Louisiana.

Conversely, Rhode Island had the lowest gun death rate, followed by Massachusetts, Hawaii, New York, and New Jersey.

39,740

Nearly 40,000 Americans died by gun violence in 2018. An average of 109 people died of gun violence each day in 2018, bringing the most recent five-year average (2014-2018) to 103 gun deaths per day.

TRENDS OVER TIME

Over the last 10 years (2009-2018), the overall gun death rate increased 18%. Increases in both homicide and suicide rates contributed to the overall change over the course of the decade; in that time period, the firearm homicide rate increased nearly 17% and the firearm suicide rate increased 19%.

---

GUN DEATHS BY INTENT, 2018

Nearly 40,000 Americans died by gun violence in 2018. An average of 109 people died of gun violence each day in 2018, bringing the most recent five-year average (2014-2018) to 103 gun deaths per day.

TRENDS OVER TIME

Over the last 10 years (2009-2018), the overall gun death rate increased 18%. Increases in both homicide and suicide rates contributed to the overall change over the course of the decade; in that time period, the firearm homicide rate increased nearly 17% and the firearm suicide rate increased 19%.

---

GUN DEATHS BY INTENT, 2018

Nearly 40,000 Americans died by gun violence in 2018. An average of 109 people died of gun violence each day in 2018, bringing the most recent five-year average (2014-2018) to 103 gun deaths per day.

TRENDS OVER TIME

Over the last 10 years (2009-2018), the overall gun death rate increased 18%. Increases in both homicide and suicide rates contributed to the overall change over the course of the decade; in that time period, the firearm homicide rate increased nearly 17% and the firearm suicide rate increased 19%.